

BARNABY FLOWERS
BUMPER BONANZA

PO BOX 12566
A'BECKETT ST
MELBOURNE
3006

info@barnabyflowers.com

Monday 2nd July 2007

MEDIA RELEASE - FOR IMMEDIATE DISTRIBUTION

Sex and Censorship. War and Health. Not your usual comedy fodder for hour long sketch variety television, but the Bumper Bonanza is nothing usual.

After producing Barnaby Flowers Comeback Special and A Time to Talk for Melbourne's Channel 31, the Antenna Award winning Barnaby Flowers team's new series Barnaby Flowers Bumper Bonanza will be recorded live to air on Channel 31 starting July 14th.

Bumper Bonanza is a comical exploration of the elements that shape human existence. Combining sketch, narrative and music, each episode will explore a different theme.

The show stars Jon Bennett and Simon Godfrey, along with new addition Kirsten Law. Their outrageous performances, witty humour and a high production value assure audiences a jam-packed hour of entertainment and antics that will not be soon forgotten!

Barnaby Flowers Bumper Bonanza is a RMITV production – most commonly known as the breeding ground for Australian comedians Rove McManus, Hamish Blake and Andy Lee, who all got their start with RMITV before moving to bigger and better things. The hype suggests Barnaby Flowers will be next to follow.

Barnaby Flowers Bumper Bonanza* goes live to air at 9:30pm Saturday nights starting on July 14th.

Channel 31 has been a catalyst in launching some of Melbourne's best comedy acts. The likes of Rove, and Hamish & Andy's origins lie with Channel 31 and Barnaby Flowers is well on the way to following in their footsteps.

Nathanael Oliver

Programming Director, Channel 31

For media enquiries, please contact

Josh Mahoney

Executive Producer

0408 021 279

josh@barnabyflowers.com

Living
the Arts

